Das ist ein wunderliches, geschehen das hat da ganz wunderbarlich erzählt und hat man ganz wunderbarlich mit einander besprochen. Und hat das, was sie da. Und hat das das hat das ganz wunderbarlich
